CHAPTER 663

July 10, 1952
[H. R. 4163]

AN ACT

To confer jurisdiction upon the United States District Court for the Eastern District of South Carolina to hear, determine, and render judgment upon the claims of Francis C. Dennis and Marvin Spires, both of Eastover, South Carolina.

Francis C. Dennis and Marvin Spires.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the United States District Court for the Eastern District of South Carolina, to hear, determine, and render judgment upon the claims of Francis C. Dennis and Marvin Spires, both of Eastover, South Carolina, for alleged personal injuries and expenses incident thereto sustained as a result of an accident involving a United States Army vehicle on August 9, 1946, in Columbia, South Carolina.

62 Stat. 933.

SEC. 2. Suit upon such claim may be instituted at any time within one year after the enactment of this Act, notwithstanding the lapse of time or any statute of limitation. Proceedings for the determination of such claim, appeals therefrom, and payment of any judgment thereon, if any, shall be in the same manner as in the cases over which such court has jurisdiction under the provisions of section 1346 of title 28 of the United States Code: Provided, That the passage and approval of this legislation shall not be construed as an inference of a liability on the part of the Government of the United States.

Approved July 10, 1952.
